

Necklace Bead Pattern - Aqua, Turquoise and Topaz

Article Rating: NA

Submitted by: Jennifer Thoden on 2006-01-02 and viewed 40435 times.

Total Word Count: 316

Author Rating:

Sample of Content:

Learn how to make a beautiful turquoise, aqua and topaz crystal and bead necklace. This original bead design will add dazzle and drama to your outfit. Plus it's super easy to make!

Content:

This bead necklace is made of a strand of turquoise seed beads that weaves in and out of a strand of turquoise seed beads, aqua crystal beads and dark topaz focal beads. The multiple cool shades of turquoise and aqua are warmed with the topaz accents. Wear this bead necklace with your favorite turquoise or brown top!

Skills required: Crimping Stringing Beads

Beading Supplies	Amt.	Size	Item	Color	Image	Crimping pliers	Needlenose pliers	Flat nose pliers	35"	.014mm	Stringing Wire	1	Silver
------------------	------	------	------	-------	-------	-----------------	-------------------	------------------	-----	--------	----------------	---	--------

Plated 2" Head Pin 4 2mm Crimp Tubes Sterling Silver 1 15mm Toggle Clasp Sterling Silver 294 Size 11 Seed Beads Transparent -Turquoise 76 Size 6 Seed Beads Matte Transparent - Teal 14 4mm Crystal Bicone Aquamarine 10 6mm Crystal Bicone Aquamarine 12 3x5mm Glass Flat Tube Matte Transparent - Aquamarine 5 6mm Pressed Glass Rondelle Medium Topaz 2 8mm Acrylic Round Metallic Copper 1 12mm Bicone Tigereye 1 8x20mm Glass Focal Bead Medium Topaz

Click here to continue on to Part 2 of this bead pattern > >

Article Source: <http://www.beadpatternsonline.com>

About the Author:

USE MY DEFAULT BIO